

ROLF C. HAGEN (UK) LTD. PRESS RELEASE
07/05/13

Happy Hedgehogs Hibernate in their Zoo Zone Homes

---

Cute little critter Crispin and his spiky friends thought their Christmases had come all at once when they received their latest delivery of Hagen's Zoo Zone small habitat crates.

Crispin, a resident at Prickles Hedgehog Rescue relies on volunteers and donations to ensure him and his prickly pals can get rehabilitated and released back into the wild.

get them to leave!

Zoo Zone crates create a great living space for injured hedgehogs in the centre's 'hogspital' helping keep them warm and secure and ensuring they get that all important beauty sleep to get them back into tip top health. Crispin and his friends love their Zoo Zone homes and have got so comfy in them that it's often a struggle to Prickles Hedgehog Rescue has been open since 2007 and currently has over 150 hedgehogs in its care. Want to find out more? Log onto Crispin's Hedgehog blog at www.crispianhedgehog.wordpress.com to read about his and his friends daily antics.

For more information contact Rolf C. Hagen (UK) visit our website at www.hagen.com.